DFM Feedback

During manufacturing, a corner radius of approximately 1mm to 1.5 mm will be present at the red-highlighted corner due to tool geometry constraints (typical of milling operations). If a sharp edge is critical at that location, please advise accordingly so we can consider secondary operations (requiring extra lead time and cost).

The required marking can be achieved through laser etching, if acceptable. Please advise if the marking to be done via machining process (requiring extra cycle time and cost).
